

NSBEA Scholarship Application for 2026-2027

GORDON F. CULVER $500 SCHOLARSHIP

All Documents Due by March 31, 2026

This scholarship is awarded to an undergraduate business education student or a student enrolled in a business transition to teaching program who will be student teaching/teaching during the 2026-27 school year.

Students applying for this scholarship MUST be a member of NSBEA

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone Number: _____ E-Mail Address: _____

University Name: _____

When are you student teaching/teaching? _____

List the school name and cooperating teacher(s) names of where you are student teaching/teaching:

What is your current GPA? _____

NSBEA Membership Date Joined _____ NBEA Member: Y N

On separate sheets of paper, address the following four questions. Please limit each response to one typed, double-spaced page.

1. What extra-curricular activities have you been involved in? (Include offices held, honors won, memberships, etc.)
2. Financial need is one factor in the selection process. Briefly describe your financial situation.
3. Describe any experiences you have had dealing with teenagers/students.
4. Of all the careers available to you, why did you decide to become a business teacher?

Please send 1) all parts of this application, 2) a one-page resume, and 3) two letters of recommendation to:

Alyssa Rippe
1205 E. Third St.
McCook, NE 69001
rippea@mpcc.edu

Documents can be sent to the above email address. Indicate Gordon F. Culver Scholarship in the subject line. This scholarship will be presented during the 2026 NCE Conference held in Kearney June 8-10, 2026. Winners will be notified at the end of April.

